Happy Birthday LiV Vodka

by northforker 1 Comment

Today (June 15), Long Island Spirits celebrates LiV Vodka's 5th birthday.

The Baiting Hollow distillery is one of the few producing vodka from potatoes.

Using the Long Island potatoes White Marcy Russet, which means it is gluten-free, the hand-crafted, small-batch distillery is among the less the 2% of vodkas crafted from the spuds.

Stop by their tasting room at 2182 Sound Ave, Baiting Hollow, or find a store near you using the store locator on their website.

While you're there, whisky lovers should not miss their Pine Barrens Single Malt Whisky, the Rough Rider Straight Bourbon or their new Rough Rider Bull Moose Three Barrel Rye Whisky.
